LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Dr. Shwetha S. I have known her in my capacity as Professor in Otorhinolaryngology & Head and Neck Surgery at H. B. T. Medical College and Dr. R. N. Cooper Hospital, Mumbai. She worked in the Otorhinolaryngology department of the hospital from 29/07/2020 till 28/07/2022 as a Secondary DNB Resident Doctor.

During her stint in the Otorhinolaryngology department in our medical institute, she has performed a broad spectrum of surgeries under guidance, including OPD-based procedures, Emergencies, tonsillo-adenoidectomy, endoscopic sinonasal surgery like FESS, Mucor debridement, and septoplasty, head and neck surgeries for both benign and malignant lesions including thyroidectomy, submandibular gland excision, parotidectomy, microscopic ear surgeries including tympanoplasty and tympanomastoidectomy, maxillo-mandibular fracture reduction, coblation procedures involving adenoids and sinonasal tumors, microlaryngeal surgeries for vocal cord lesion and Cricopharyngoscopy-Esophagoscopy for aero-digestive foreign body, among others.

During her long rigorous hours in the operating rooms, she remained composed even during high-tension situations. She has steady surgical hand. This reflects her ability to excel and perform carefully under pressure which is considered a great quality in a doctor. Additionally, she earned quite a reputation for coordinating diligently with senior surgeons while assisting them in complex surgeries like cochlear implant, endoscopic skull base surgery, rhinoplasty, head and neck onco-surgeries, bronchoscopy amongst others.

Dr. Shwetha S. demonstrated strength and resilience during the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic. She was posted in COVID-19 Intensive Care Units (ICU) and wards where she treated infected patients with due diligence.

She has passed her DNB Theory and Practical Examinations in first attempt. She also has an additional qualification of Diploma in Otorhinolaryngology. She has actively published articles. I eulogize her propensity for such exceptional work. She has worked actively participated and presented seminars and case presentations. She has actively attended CME's and workshops.

Also, Dr. Shwetha S. excelled as a teacher who always kept the medical students motivated through her cordial and intriguing teaching. During her clinical posting, she taught medical undergraduate students about the various surgical instruments, radiological images, audiograms, physical examination, and basic history-taking requirements for otorhinolaryngology. She also supervised junior resident's clinical learning and surgical training both in the outpatient clinic and operating rooms.

Dr. Shwetha S. is not only an excellent doctor, but she is also a wonderful human being. She bears a good moral character. She garnered adulation from her patients, their families and colleagues alike for being extremely polite, calm and humble. Her excellent communication skill makes her a better doctor. She is respectful to her seniors.

In conclusion, I would like to say that Dr. Shwetha S. holds all the traits of an excellent doctor. Considering her work ethic, intelligence, and reliable nature, I believe she would make an excellent addition to your team of doctors. I strongly recommend her candidature as I believe she will be an exemplary fit for it. I wish her best in all her endeavours.

Sincerely,
