

Dr. Athulya Raj, Pathologist

MD Pathology, FRCPath

Kochi, India, 09847861224, athulyakailas@gmail.com

PROFILE I am a Pathologist trained at Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences. After completion of MD, I took up my current job where I work as Lab director as well as report cytology and hematology independently. Meanwhile I was preparing for FRCPath examination, which I cleared in April 2022. Now I am looking forward for a job to develop my skills in reporting histopathology where I can pursue my passion for the subject, involve in patient care and contribute to the department at the same time.
