

ANUMOL KURIAKOSE

BSC NURSE

As a recent BSc Nursing graduate, I have gained practical experience through internships and on-the-job training in medical-surgical, pediatric, and critical care units. Proficient in performing assessments, developing care plans, administering medications, and utilizing healthcare technologies, I am committed to providing high-quality care to patients. I enjoy collaborating with interdisciplinary teams and am dedicated to continuous learning to stay up-to-date with the latest evidence-based practices.

Seeking an entry-level registered nurse position to apply my skills and passion for making a positive impact in a healthcare setting.
