

Joel Mathew John

Vascular and Endovascular surgeon

Profile

I am an experienced Vascular and Endovascular Surgeon, boasting over 5 years of clinical practice at Christian Medical College Vellore, India's top-tier tertiary hospital. My practice has exposed me to a diverse range of open vascular and endovascular procedures, showcasing not only proficient surgical skills but also a consistent record of delivering high-quality patient care.

Moreover, I possess extensive experience in mentoring and training vascular trainees, supported by a robust academic background.

My capabilities extend to leading multidisciplinary teams and implementing innovative techniques to ensure superior patient outcomes.
